DETTER'S HAIR RESTORATIVE
FOR BALD HEADS.

IT IS NOT MY INTENTION TO HUMBUG THE PUBlic. This Restorative has built up a world-wide reputation upon its own merits, as is considered by those who have used it; to be the best article ever invented for the Hair. Read the following certificate:
Lewiston, Sept. 3d, 1863.
This is to certify that I have used DETTER'S HAIR RESTORATIVE, and I take great pleasure in recommending it to the public as a safe and effectual preparation for the restoration of the Hair. I was nearly bald when I commenced the use of it, and after using two bottles, I find it has produced a fine, healthy growth of hair, and that, too, in less than two months. I can heartily recommend it for its great virtues and efficiency. S. D. RAMSDELL,

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 13 1864.

WHAT DO THEY MEAN?—The Democracy of Clackamas county, with the pretence of anxiety to guard the privilege of freemen in voting, adopted the following resolution

That we recommend to the State Convention, to be held at Albany on the 13th day of April next, the adoption of the following resolution

Resolved, That in the freedom and purity of the ballot rest the security of the citizen, and they must and shall be maintained sacred and inviolable and that we, the Democracy of the State of Oregon, will unite with our brethren in other States, by force of arms, if need be, in resistance to every attempt, from whatever source it may come to overturn or abridge by menaces or direct interference by military force, the independence and purity of the ballot box in the ensuing elections, State and National, and to this end we pledge each to the other, and to our brethren of other States, our lives, fortunes and sacred honors, being firmly resolved to maintain at all hazard our rights as free and patriotic citizens of the American Union

If there is any special democracy in this, or if it suggests a single principle or idea which is not universally adopted and recognized in the United States, we confess that we are unable to see it True, it sounds strangely, coming from a party which has always insisted on the viva voce mode of voting—a scheme devised only "to overturn and abridge by menaces the purity and independence of the ballot box"—but that sort of inconsistency is characteristic and not surprising Certainly there can be no sensible fear that any one in Oregon will be interrupted or disturbed in the free exercise of the right of suffrage, and therefore the pompous resolution looks very much like setting up a false issue, for the sake of knocking it down and making a great noise about the operation Gas is a good thing, when it can be burned for the sake of illumination, but when it is made only to show the ingenuity of the manufacturer, and is allowed to escape idly, it is offensive, and that resolution, so far as any practical application of the generally received truths which it contains, is concerned, is as near gas as possible It is not offensive, but it is perfectly harmless, and if the State Convention of the Democracy will pass it, and then adopt the multiplication table, as a correct mathematical fact, it will do its duty, in an innocent way.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS —We find in the Eugene Review, that in some counties an effort has been made to galvanize Democracy, by making tickets, and we publish them, as otherwise many of our readers will never know that any such thing has been done or who in the State are willing to have their names used in opposition to the Government

In Lane County For State Senator H Clay Huston; for Representatives H N Hill J J Walton, Jr, and John M Thompson, for Sheriff, Jesse Cox, for County Clerk J W Skaggs for County Treasurer, W R Jones for Assessor, John Dougherty, for Surveyor, A W Patterson for County Commissioners, J Gillespie and A J Keeney, for School Superintendent, R E Foley, for Coroner, A N Foley [since declined]

In Polk For Senator H M. Waller Representative H N V Holmes and Isaac Bell, Clerk, J. T Outhouse, Sheriff, Davis Gibson, Treasurer, James Smith, Assessor, J. H Lewis, Superintendent of Schools, G N Russell, Surveyor William Hall, County Commissioners, T H Lucas and G B Savary

In Douglas County For Joint Senators for Douglas, Coos and Curry Counties, Charles Drain and R M Gurney; for Representatives, Ebenezer Stephens, E J Grubb and J J Browning for County Commissioners, Harrison Pinkston and Samuel C Moore for Sheriff J E P Withers for County Clerk, L G London, for Treasurer, F D Robinson for Assessor, Samuel Adams; for School Superintendent, S Hamilton, for Coroner, J G Clark

THE DIFFERENCE, BRIEFLY STATED —Patriotic men in all questions affecting the welfare of the nation, say "Our Country, right or wrong" they desire it always to be right, but if it is assailed, they will support it under all circumstances, and seek to correct faults, if any exist, after the danger is over

Democrats, on the other hand, act upon the watchword, "Our Party, right or wrong" Their only object seems to be, no matter how imminent or deadly the peril which threatens the nation, to make political capital, so that their party may be strengthened, even though the land goes to ruin through their treasonable neglect or mismanagement.

FROM LEWISTON —The merchants of Lewiston are anxiously awaiting the re appearance of steamboats with spring stocks

Wesley Mulkey is about to supply Lewiston with water brought in pipes from the Clear water river, at the head of Reuben's Flat, four miles from town.

Oregon apples are retailing in Lewiston at 25 cents per pound,

Trains are daily loading and leaving for the new gold mines in the Kootenai country.

THE WARRIOR FOR PEACE TRAITORS — Says the New York Tribune, of February 11th

The Daily News, which never even pretended to support or approve the War for the Union, but always condemned and opposed it, announces that it will print Gen McClellan's Report in full in successive issues of its sheet If there be one sincerely loyal man who still clings to Gen McClellan, we ask him to answer this question—If Gen McClellan is a true man, why is every traitor his noisy champion?

FOWLER ON 'LITTLE MAC.'—In a recent lecture in Maine, Professor Fowler, the celebrated phrenologist, related the following phrenological reminiscence of the Chickahominy grave digger

The father of George B McClellan and himself were "old cronies," as he expressed it, he often came to his office to listen to his examinations, and when, once on a time, the lad George was home from West Point the father brought his two sons to have their characters phrenologically described upon. Says Mr Fowler 'I remember all the circumstances as if it were but yesterday, and I remembered the train of reasoning that then passed through my mind 'Never' with great emphasis 'never in all my life had I found such an inordinate development of the organ of caution as in the head of George B McClellan! I also found the propelling faculties (combativeness and destructiveness) small, and I thought to myself what is the sense or reason of sending such a natural coward to West Point? But then I reasoned that there would probably never be any war to call for military genius, and West Point might as well educate the cowards as any other institution' He said that his life had only proved his early convictions and referring to the great seven days' battle, related that a personal family friend was then in Richmond, and the plan of the battle was well known Lee said 'I know McClellan for a natural coward, and if I draw every available man from Richmond, and hurl our whole force upon his right wing he will not dare to move his left!' He did so and proved that he truly did know his adversary, for, although McClellan could have swung his left wing right over Richmond, he only sent forward a corporal's guard to reconnoitre, and the golden opportunity was passed by

TROUBLES OF DEMOCRACY —IS SLAVERY DEAD?—Mr Brooks, of the New York Express has stirred up a hornet's nest in the ranks of the Democracy, by saying slavery is dead The New York News, and kindred sheets, all assails Brooks personally but Brooks writes to the Express as follows

"If Mr Ben Wood, in view of his personal attacks on Mr Brooks, in his newspaper, will come back to Congress and attend to business, he will find there are but ten democratic members of the House, who do not in principle agree with what Mr Brooks said viz, that as a fact, be it right, or wrong, and as a fact to be recognized, as much as day light or darkness, the slavery institution is dead—dead North, by the votes and action of such men in the border States as Reverdy Johnson, Senator Hicks of Maryland—such men as Clay and his like in Kentucky—such men as Rollins and Blair, of Missouri, and other border States all about; dead South, by the conscription of free negroes there into the rebel army, and by the enlistment of 20,000 slaves as working soldiers When Mr Wood returns to business he will learn all that"

There are about seventy members of Congress who call themselves Democrats It is interesting to know that six sevenths of them look upon slavery as defunct, and are denounced by the one-seventh as Abolitionists

A number of persons have lately arrived here and at Lewiston who have been driven out of the Beaver Head country by the Vigilance Committee They report that there is an "irrepressible conflict" going on there between the Pike's Peak miners and the Californians, Oregonians and Washingtonians Thus far the "Pikes" have the best of it, they constituting a majority of the Vigilantes Any one hailing from this side of the mountains is at once set down by the Pikes as a "suspicious character," and the mere fact of being seen once in bad company insures a warning to leave the country within twenty four hours Aleck Carter, formerly engaged here as a packer, was recently hung by the committee for shooting a man—as report says—in self defence Tom Reily, with a company of twenty-two men, had started for Fort Benton, and fifteen of the vigilantes were in pursuit of him, intending to hang him for some alleged misdemeanor — W W Statesman

INDIAN MURDERS —Two Indians, charged with murdering a man at Kettle Falls, last fall, were brought down from Fort Colville this week, to be tried here at the present term of the District Court The circumstances are as follows One of the Indians concerned told of the murder some four months after it had been committed, and the authorities went to the place described by the informant and exhumed the body of a man, whom they were unable to recognize, but supposed to be that of a person known at Colville by the nick name of "Texas" The murder was committed at Kettle Falls near old Fort Colville, on the Carriboo trail, and it is supposed the man was on his way from the mines to Colville to spend the winter The murderers belong to the Okanagan tribe, and followed the man some distance, to murder him for his money, which they state amounted to only ten dollars — W W Statesman.

FROM ORO FINO —From a private letter received from Oro Fino we learn that the miners at that place, Pierce City and other mining localities in that vicinities, are bent in getting ready to commence operations in mining The different camps are daily receiving large addition of new miners who seem disposed to be contented to come there and work and receive eight dollars per day, notwithstanding the great excitement about Kootenai and Boise Mr Levi Ankeny had arrived at Oro Fino with his long looked for band of fat beeves The news flew like wildfire through the different mining camps, a general stampede of the miners took place and for a day or two Oro Fino was a fast town —Golden Age

Morris Mensor, at Jacksonville, had his house burned up on Monday evening, the 28th ult, together with his furniture clothing family presents, jewelry, &c Mr Mensor had but bare time to get the children out of bed and house, when the building was all in flames Loss, about $6,000

SHASTA STAGE —Mr Rice of Shasta Cal arrived in this city on Wednesday afternoon, March 29th, with passengers, direct from Shasta,—which place they left on the 10th of February This we believe is the first stage that has crossed the Payette and Placerville mountain this season —Boise News, April 2d

Jesse Moreland has been appointed post master at Needy Clackamas county, in place of J S Vinson, resigned Also Hiram Smith at Harrisburg, Linn county in place of A A McCully, resigned

The Government Wharf boat at Wallula was sold last week at some $8 000 less than it cost It had become useless to the Government The Oregon Steam Navigation Company were the purchasers

Assistant Surgeon H Carpenter has been ordered from the post at Grand Ronde Yamhill county, to Cape disappointment, to superintend the erection of a hospital there

VIRGINIA DESCRIBED BY ONE OF HER OWN SONS.—A few years ago, in Virginia, during one of the gubernatorial campaigns, Henry A Wise in a speech gave a vivid view of what slavery has done for the South In language as graphic as truthful, he said.

Commerce has long spread her sails and sailed away from you You have not, as yet, dug more than coal enough to warm yourselves at your own hearths you have set no tilt hammer of Vulcan to strike blows worthy of gods in your own iron foundries, you have not yet spun more than coarse cotton enough in the way of manufacture to clothe your own slaves You have no commerce, no mining, no manufactures You have relied alone on the single power of agriculture, and such agriculture! Your sedge patch outshines the sun Your inattention to your only source of wealth has seared the very bosom of mother earth In stead of having to feed cattle on a thousand hills, you have had to chase the stump tailed steer through the sedge patches to procure a tough beefsteak The present condition of things has existed too long in Virginia The landlord has skinned the tenant and the tenant has skinned the land until all have grown poor together

To this, the Marysville Appeal very pertinently adds

We see the effects and results of this war, an abatement of these enumerated evils Commerce has spread her sails on her return to Virginia Free labor—the labor of the emigrant from Ireland and the world, is going to dig the coal Vulcan will strike vigorous blows in the hundreds of foundries and machine shops to spring up over that land The spinning loom will buzz with industry and slaves will clothe themselves The land will be recuperated, and its products will reward the husbandman who holds the plow or drives Sedge patches will open to the light of the Sun, and disappear And last, that system inimical to aristocratic estates and the monopolization of large tracts of land held under slavery—the tenant system—will disappear What a glorious emancipation war brings the South With all its horrors, who cannot see that war is necessary to the purification of the political atmosphere, as the lightning to the physical?

SWAPPING DOCUMENTS—M'CLELLAN'S REPORT —It is charged that members of Congress swap documents Of course such a practice reflects equally on both parties politically, as it takes two to make the bargain The correspondent of the St Louis Republican says

"Since it has become the ruling custom for the dominant party in Congress to prostitute its power by getting out documents damaging to the opposition, in the shape of reports, etc, the practice of swapping documents has become common A Democrat will not circulate Republican documents among his constituents, and a Republican has the same conscientious scruples against disseminating Democratic arguments, so the two manage the common difficulty to their own satisfaction, if not to that of our constituents, by making a trade, each one getting rid of the objectionable documents by taking in exchange others by no means as interesting to a seeker after political knowledge Democrats done quite a heavy trade with Republicans in bartering Reports of the Committee on the Conduct of the War for agricultural and commercial reports, which they sent to their constituents Now the Republicans turn the tables by trading General McClellan's report to the Democrats in exchange for the same kind of interesting statistics Senator Wade, and representative Julian, of Indiana, both swapped their McClellan reports to Representative O'Dale, of New York, for an equal number of agricultural reports Mr O'Dale received but forty-five copies as his individual allowance, but, he succeeded in getting possession of about five hundred after the above manner, all of which was gobbled up by his constituents, many of them coming here from Brooklyn for no other purpose than to secure a copy from him Mr Cox, of Ohio, also went into the trade very heavily to the benefit of his constituents"

BRITISH MERCHANTS PROPOSE TO FIT OUT A CRUISER TO CATCH THE ALABAMA —The Liverpool Post of 10th February says:

It was currently reported on 'Change yesterday that in a few days one of the fastest screw steamers afloat would leave a British port on a cruise after the Alabama This new steamer has been purchased, and is being fitted out, at the sole expense of two first-class English houses—one in London and the other in this town—both of whom have suffered heavily in consequence of the depredations of the famous Confederate cruiser. The new vessel, it is expected, will steam three or four knots faster than the Alabama ever could or will do, besides being much stronger, and when armed—carrying guns of such a calibre and construction—the chances of the Alabama being able to cope with her will be hopeless She will be commanded by a man who has already gained much notoriety in connection with ocean navigation and in whom Capt Semmes will find a foe 'worthy of his steel' The mission of this new steamer while it will be chiefly to hunt and catch the Alabama, will also be directed against the other Confederate cruisers — Georgia Florida, Rappahannock, (should the latter get to sea,) and the Tuscaloosa Already two barks have left England with coals for the "new comer," which will be discharged at one or two ports which this vessel will make her rendezvous This steamer, of course will act in conjunction with the Federal cruisers now on the lookout for the Alabama We may here repeat that the action on the part of the British merchants is prompted by heavy combined and personal losses in the destruction of neutral goods in American bottoms, and also by the fact that hitherto all the efforts of the Federal navy to capture the Alabama have been fruitless

SALEM ITEMS —From the Statesman we learn that the Rev Mr Waller has "broken ground" for the new building for the Willamette University and expects, Providence permitting, to have the walls up and the building covered by fall The structure will be of brick, four stories in height 84 feet in length 40 feet wide and in the form of a Greek cross

H H Parker, Esq U S Deputy Revenue Collector made a seizure of a quantity of articles in several stores in town, last week which were exhibited for sale in violation of the revenue law not having the proper stamp affixed to them

The Catholic church in this place was dedicated last Sunday with the appropriate ceremonies by Archbishop Blanchett, assisted by several Priests Rev Mr Fierens, of Portland, delivering a discourse on the occasion

The dwelling of Mr Bush, near town, was broken into on Wednesday night last and robbed of a number of articles, including bedding, etc The thieves also mutilated some of the furniture, pictures, &c, before decamping No one was living in the house at the time

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to April 11th.

New plan of Operations against Richmond

Rebels Fortifying along the Orange and Alexandria Railroad

Terrible Rain Storms on the Potomac

Gov. Hahn recognized by the President as Civil Governor of Louisiana

Congressional.

NEW YORK April 11—The Herald's special says It is reported that Gen W F Smith will command the 21 Army Corps which is to be organized at Fortress Monroe and is to go up the Peninsula while the Army of the Potomac keep Lee engaged Burnside it is presumed will attempt to cut the route to Goldsboro North Carolina intending to cut the railroads The movements will probably be delayed by storm

The majority of the Committee on Elections have reported in favor of Blair's right to his seat The minority will report in favor of Knox As soon as the question is settled Blair will resign his command in the field

The Times special says Information has been received which shows that the rebels are strengthening their fortifications along the Orange and Alexandria Railroad and building works between it and Fredericksburg Lee is daily receiving large accessions to his army

A Committee composed of leading representatives of both Houses have called upon Senator Morgan, Chairman of the National Union Committee and urged upon him the postponement of the National Convention [illegible] is being circulated and signed by several Representatives and Senators representing that the Convention should be postponed

The House resolution respecting Mexico has been referred to the Senate Committee on Foreign Affairs The Committee will take no action until Secretary Seward's views are ascertained in regard to it. He has always been opposed to any action by Congress on the subject The unanimity with which the resolution passed the House has caused a good deal of uneasiness in the State Department

Another special Washington dispatch says that there was a terrible rain storm in the vicinity on the 9th which caused a rise in the tributaries of the Potomac Several bridges on the Orange and Alexandria Railroad were washed away The damage is expected to be repaired to day

John C Rives publisher of the Congressional Globe died Sunday morning the 10th

Ex Congressmen Edgerton of Ohio, Symes of Maine and McKibben of California are candidates for the Governorship of Montana.

All sutlers have been ordered to leave the Army of the Potomac before the end of the week

CHICAGO April 11—Union State Committee of Pennsylvania met at Harrisburg on the 6th, and agreed to call the State Convention on the 28th The meeting was very largely attended by members of the Legislature, with whom members of the committee had full consultation The general tone of the discussion indicated a decided preference for Lincoln There was considerable outside influence in favor of Andrew Johnson, of Tennessee, for Vice President

ST LOUIS, April 11—A dispatch from Provost Marshal General Fry to the Provost Marshal of this State says that Gen Grant directs active measures to be immediately made to get into the field recruits of the new organization and all old troops

Gen Sherman in a dispatch to the Governor of Missouri on the subject of his Department, has now given him control of all veterans now absent and requests the Governor to have them sent to Louisville immediately on the expiration of their furloughs No excuse will be taken for any delay, and commanders of regiments will be held strictly accountable for all delays

The General says that now is the time that every soldier should be in his place; that 300 in time are better than 1,000 too late

Ten regiments, belonging to the armies of Ohio and the Cumberland will be sent to Nashville Those of the Army of Tennessee will be sent to Cairo, where they will receive further orders

FORTRESS MONROE April 8—Forty rebels landed on the wharf at Point Lookout last night and destroyed all the oil of the light house and exploded a keg of powder under each of the towers Seventy feet of the stairs were destroyed The lantern was considerably injured and it will require several days to repair it

CINCINNATI April 11—Dispatches from Louisville say that Capt [illegible], with fifteen men of the 14th Kentucky surprised eighty rebels on the 6th at Quicksand Creek, killed ten and wounded eleven, and captured all arms and camp equipments

A fire at Harrisburg Ky, on the 8th, destroyed property valued at $50 000

ST LOUIS, April 11—Official advices from Gen Steel, March 29th have been received He was then at Arkadelphia on the Washita He had continued skirmishing with the enemy on the route, but the progress of the expedition was at no time impeded

MEMPHIS April 9—Grierson's cavalry had a fight yesterday with a part of Forrest's force at the bridge, over Wolf river which Forrest had just completed Our force succeeded in capturing the bridge with a loss of 8 killed and wounded

It is reported that Forrest has been reinforced by a portion of S D Lee's cavalry, and intends crossing the Tennessee river His demonstrations towards Memphis being mere feints

NEW YORK April 11—The Morning Star dates of New Orleans of the 2d says the President has recognized Gov Hahn as civil governor of Louisiana He has also conferred on him the powers of military governor These powers are doubtless intended to be temporary to be withdrawn as soon as the people have adopted the State Constitution

WASHINGTON, April 11—Subsequent to the vote in the House on Saturday, on the expulsion of Harris of Maryland Schenck of Ohio offered a resolution declaring that Harris a member of the House is hereby censured

Eldridge of Wisconsin moved to lay the resolution on the table Vote lost, 23 to 80 The resolution of censure then passed by a vote of 93 to 18

Speaker Colfax proposed then that the resolution for the expulsion of Long of Ohio be debated at length to morrow No vote will probably be taken It will be impossible to obtain the requisite two thirds vote to expel him The resolution is not so strong as the one adopted in Harris's case which declared the later unworthy of a seat in Congress It will probably pass by a party vote All the Democrats voted against the expulsion of Harris yesterday

In the House Craven of Indiana offered the following resolutions and moved the previous question which was decided negatively by a vote of 12 to 76, causing the resolutions to lie over

Resolved That in the present condition of the country when the passions of the people are influenced and their prejudices excited, it is unwise to attempt to amend the Constitution of the United States, that ample power is contained within the limits of that instrument as it now exists to protect and defend the Nation's life and that the exercise of power not warranted by its provisions would be dangerous to the liberties of the people tending to the establishment of a military despotism and the final overthrow of free government in America

Resolved That an attempt by Congress to reduce the States to the condition of Territories is as odious and revolutionary as secession itself

Resolved That it is the duty of the Government to listen to and consider any proposition for reunion which may be offered by the insurgents which do not involve the question of separation

The House proceeded to the consideration of the resolution reaffirming the principles of the Crittenden resolution that the war is not waged for the purpose of conquest but for the restoration of obedience to the Constitution with the rights of the States unimpaired The resolution was tabled by a vote of 81 to 64

SAN FRANCISCO April 12—The firm of [illegible] & Gray [illegible] yesterday Their liabilities are estimated at $20 000

Private dispatches [illegible] New York April 8th, says that [illegible] boots have risen [illegible] $17 per case and are now selling at $190 Same boots are selling in this market at $60 per dozen

NEW YORK April 8—An increased duty on teas is very probable and it may also apply to goods in bond [illegible] before making further shipments to New York via the Isthmus [illegible] the same [illegible] increased duty on sugar [illegible] holders of tea and sugar refuse to sell at present prices

DOMESTIC DIFFERENCES —Family jars occur sometimes in Portland, notwithstanding the generality of families are well regulated The proverb makers tell us that marriages are made in Heaven, but we can mark what is done with some of them on earth at Divorce Courts To such an extent does connubial infelicity prevail that such Courts are now recognized institutions in nearly all civilized countries and our Courts do a large business in this line We notice an application for a decree of divorce, where the applicant is mother, and also prays 'for the custody of her minor child, named Jeff Davis, and leave to change the name of said child "

ROW AMONG THE CELESTIALS —On Monday evening a moon eyed Chinaman rushed about the streets in search of an officer, to go in the vicinity of the Portland Foundry, where he reported a general muss and some of his countrymen killed Arriving at the scene of the conflict the whole precinct of Celestials were found in an uproar, but nobody was killed or wounded It seems that a number of Chinamen were engaged in gambling at one of their peculiar games when a quarrel arose, and the prospect of a high time startled the entire race

THE THEATRE —A good audience witnessed 'Leah' last night, and seemed to be thoroughly gratified To night Mr Waldron has a benefit, and though we are not inclined to puff theatrical actors we think it but fair and right to say that those who care for theatrical exhibitions well and discreetly managed owe more to Mr Waldron than to "any other man" This evening the sterling play of the 'Bride of the Lammermoor' with the comedy of the 'Honeymoon,' will be presented We hope that a generous patronage will show that the people of Portland appreciate the exertions of Mr Waldron to gratify them

NO BOTTOM —A "shingle" has been stuck up at the junction of A street with Front, by some unfortunate driver, who had left his tracks there, warning teamsters to "beware no bottom" Similar notices might be posted at almost every street corner in the city, and save a vast deal of horse flesh and cruel swearing Only yesterday a carriage upset on Columbia street between First and Second, in just such a place, because the driver was reckless enough to start in without a pilot.

EXPERIMENTING —Mr G W Vaughn purchased a few loads of gravel yesterday, and had it placed before [illegible] mises on Front street, as an experiment—to see if it would not improve the [illegible] gravel can be procured in any [illegible] the bars of the Columbia and if [illegible] practically useful can be boated [illegible] comparatively a light expense

A COLPORTEUR —The executive committee of the Multnomah County Bible Society have employed Rev Mr Royal to canvass the city, and supply the destitute and all others who may wish it, with a copy of the Scriptures He will also keep a full supply of Bibles, of all styles on hand at his residence, and while canvassing

SHOOTING AFFRAY —A shooting affray occurred at Umatilla City on Thursday last, between Matt Bledsoe and James Bruno in which fourteen shots were fired Bruno was wounded in the abdomen, and received one shot in the right shoulder, and another in the left arm shattering the bone near the elbow His wounds are not considered dangerous Bledsoe was arrested immediately after the affair, and upon trial the next day was acquitted.

KILLING TIME —We defy any person to devise any better method for "killing time" than that adopted by a gentleman yesterday, who took his stand at the O S N Co's wharf, and dropped his line for Willamette trout. The time sped away, and so did the fish thereby both were murdered by the person who had himself, previously, nearly died of ennui

WATER PIPES —The work of laying the 4-inch pipe of the Water Company is rapidly going ahead, having nearly reached B street on the way down First, yesterday The length of pipe already laid has nearly attained an aggregate of six miles Something for Portland

ALL SET —The Couch reports that it was expected yesterday the river would be free of vessels about Astoria The Falkinburg will leave for Oak Point to day, to load for San Francisco

VALUABLE TREASURE —The two last Express arrivals from the Columbia river, have brought to Wells, Fargo & Co's office in this city treasure amounting in value to $55,000, besides an abundance of letters The Boise Express arrived last evening

STOCK —Horned "stock" has suddenly taken another "rise," and was "going up" pretty freely again, yesterday The steamer Julia left Pioneer wharf for the Cascades, with a full load and the barge, loaded. A like trip is engaged for to day

DOMESTIC DIFFERENCES.—Family jars do occur sometimes in Portland, notwithstanding the generality of families are well regulated. The proverb makers tell us that marriages are made in Heaven, but we can mark what is done with some of them on earth at Divorce Courts. To such an extent does connubial infelicity prevail that such Courts are now recognized institutions in nearly all civilized countries, and our Courts do a large business in this line. We notice an application for a decree of divorce, where the applicant is a mother, and also prays "for the custody of her minor child, named Jeff. Davis, and for leave to change the name of said child."

ROW AMONG THE CELESTIALS.—On Monday evening a moon-eyed Chinaman rushed about the streets in search of an officer, to go into the vicinity of the Portland Foundry, where he reported a general muss and some of his countrymen killed. Arriving at the scene of the conflict the whole precinct of Celestials were found in an uproar, but nobody was killed or wounded. It seems that a number of Chinamen were engaged in gambling at one of their peculiar games, when a quarrel arose, and the prospect of a high time startled the entire race.

THE THEATRE.—A good audience witnessed "Leah" last night, and seemed to be thoroughly gratified. To-night Mr. Waldron has a benefit, and though we are not inclined to puff theatrical actors, we think it but fair and right to say that those who care for theatrical exhibitions, well and discreetly managed, owe more to Mr. Waldron than to "any other man." This evening the sterling play of the "Bride of the Lammermoor" with the comedy of the "Honeymoon," will be presented. We hope that a generous patronage will show that the people of Portland appreciate the exertions of Mr. Waldron to gratify them.

NO BOTTOM.—A "shingle" has been stuck up at the junction of A street with Front, by some unfortunate driver, who had left his tracks there, warning teamsters to "beware: no bottom." Similar notices might be posted at almost every street corner in the city, and save a vast deal of horse-flesh and cruel swearing. Only yesterday a carriage upset on Columbia street, between First and Second, at just such a place, because the driver was reckless enough to start in without a pilot.

EXPERIMENTING.—Mr. G. W. Vaughn purchased a few loads of gravel yesterday, and had it placed before his premises on Front street, as an experiment—to see if it would not improve the street. The gravel can be procured in any quantity, on the bars of the Columbia, and if found to be practically useful can be boated to the city at comparatively light expense.

THE OLD AND THE NEW.—To-night the city Council that have been in charge of affairs for the past year, will meet at the Council Chamber, and at the conclusion of their work will adjourn sine die. The new members will meet to-morrow evening, and perfect an organization for the coming year.

THE JENNY JONES.—This clipper schooner is at present tied up, below Couch's wharf, in the city, awaiting action that will place her free from the trammels of law, into which she has inadvertantly been drawn. The Master, Capt. Jas. Jones, left for Victoria on the last steamship, where he expects to find a "bondsman."

ROLLING CIGARS.—We yesterday witnessed the art of "rolling" cigars, by G. B. Gray, Esq., on Front street. The leaf used was the product of Oregon, and if men will persist in the use of such "weeds" we hope they will find it advantageous to their financial condition to support home industry.

VERY BEAUTIFUL.—Mr. Miller, the skilful florist of Milwaukie, brought down yesterday some of the most elegant collections of flowers and plants which we have ever seen. There is—but if we begin we should fill a column in telling the whole list. Every body who loves flowers, and no honest person does not, should call at his room on Washington street, and get beautiful specimens, at a reasonable price.

A COLPORTEUR.—The executive committee of the Multnomah County Bible Society have employed Rev. Mr. Royal to canvass the city, and supply the destitute, and all others who may wish it, with a copy of the Scriptures. He will also keep a full supply of Bibles, of all sizes, on hand at his residence, and while canvassing.

SHOOTING AFFRAY.—A shooting affray occurred at Umatilla City on Thursday last, between Matt. Bledsoe and James Bruno in which fourteen shots were fired. Bruno was wounded in the abdomen, and received one shot in the right shoulder, and another in the arm, shattering the bone near the elbow. His wounds are not considered dangerous. Bledsoe was arrested immediately after the affray, and upon trial the next day was acquitted.

KILLING TIME.—We defy any person to devise any better method for "killing time" than that adopted by a gentleman yesterday, who took his stand at the O. S. N. Co.'s wharf, and dropped his line for Willamette trout. The time sped away, and so did the fish, thereby both were murdered by the person who had himself, previously, nearly died of ennui.

WATER PIPES.—The work of laying the 4-inch pipe of the Water Company is rapidly going ahead, having nearly reached B street on the way down First, yesterday. The length of pipe already laid has nearly attained an aggregate of six miles. Something for Portland.

ALL SET.—The Couch reports that it was expected yesterday the river would be free of ice about Astoria. The Falkinburg will leave for Oak Point to-day, to load for San Francisco.

VALUABLE TREASURE.—The two last Express arrivals from the Columbia river, have brought to Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office in this city treasure amounting in value to $55,000, besides an abundance of letters. The Boise Express arrived last evening.

STOCK.—Horned "stock" has suddenly taken another "rise," and was "going up" very freely again, yesterday. The steamer which left Pioneer wharf for the Cascades, with a full load, and the barge, loaded. A like trip is engaged for to-day.

EAGLE BAKERY.—This popular establishment has changed hands, and Geo. T. Myers & Co. become proprietors. Mr. Myers is so well known in Portland that he needs no endorsement from us to start him in the good wishes of the community. Mr. Sharf, one of the recent proprietors, will take his departure for St. Paul, Minnesota, on the next steamer.

AUCTION.—The stock of groceries, English sauces, etc., etc., which will be offered for sale to-day at Auction, by A. B. Richardson, are well worthy of inspection, by persons in need of such articles, and no doubt they will sell cheap.

SUMMER CLOTHING.—The weather was such yesterday that light clothing was very comfortable, and we noticed that linen coats were numerous on the streets.

SUITABLE.—Benkert's pump sole, Philadelphia made boots are just the thing. Shelby has received a new supply by this steamer. All who desire an elegant boot are advised to call soon.

It is generally conceded by all dealers that Burt's New York make of ladies' misses' and children's style of shoes are now taking the preference above all other goods, being well gotten up, stylish and well fitting. A fresh supply just received at Shelby's Boot and Shoe Store, First Street, Portland.

CONCLUSIVE PROOF
OF THE EFFICACY OF
HOSTETTER'S
STOMACH BITTERS!

PROTECTIVE MEDICATION

Great Truths
—IN—
SMALL COMPASS!

WHAT THE BITTERS ARE.

A pure, delightful, Vegetable Balm,
To cheer the spirits and the nerves to calm,
Protect the system from Miasma's bane,
Rouse torpid Nature and the strength sustain.

THEIR INGREDIENTS.

Juices of plants, roots, barks, of virtues rare,
By chemic art expressed with patient care,
And the mild spirit of the soundest rye—
Purest of all diffusive stimuli.

RESULTS OF THEIR USE.

Digestion rallies, appetite revives,
The food assimilates, the patient thrives,
Dyspepsia vanishes, with all its throes,
And peaceful sleep succeeds disturbed repose.

EFFECTS ON THE LIVER.

The bilious sufferer, languid, listless, pale,
Physicked for years, perhaps, without avail,
Finds in the BITTERS all he asks or needs,
And lives to smile at doctors and their creeds.

OPERATION ON THE BOWELS.

Relaxed, constricted, or the seat of pain,
These organs should not, for one day, remain.
The cause of each extreme you can expel—
The BITTERS tone and regulate as well.

EFFECT ON THE DEBILITATED.

The flaccid muscles firmness soon acquire,
The frame gains flesh, the eye resumes its fire,
Strength to the limbs, hope to the heart returns,
Till staff and crutch the convalescent spurns.

BROKEN CONSTITUTION.

The constitution tried by pain or care,
Or wild indulgence, is not repair;
The genial Tonic, as the healthful dews
Quickens parched herbs, its wasted power renews.

CHILLS AND FEVER.

Damp, cold, exposure to the malarious fog,
Brings on of ills a fearful catalogue;
But intermittents, whatso'er their kind,
HOSTETTER'S BITTERS scatter to the wind.

SICK HEADACHE.

This torment dire, that all enjoyment kills,
Yields not to pungent scents or drastic pills,
'Tis from the stomach that it takes its rise;
Tone with the BITTERS, and the anguish flies.

WANT OF APPETITE.

Without due nourishment life's pulses wane,
The blood grows thin and dullness clouds the brain;
But this Elixir sets the system right,
And "Good Digestion waits on Appetite."

THE BITTERS AFTER SICKNESS.

Exhausting fever leaves its victim low,
And, unassisted, Health's return is slow;
Then with the Bitters weakened Nature aid,
For in each drop vitality's conveyed.

AS A GENERAL PREVENTIVE.

By night and day, on river, sea or land,
In instant peril of disease we stand;
But its dread arrows harmless seem to glide
Past all with this invigorant fortified.

IMPURE WATER, ETC.

Roam through the world, through every climate range,
Here is the antidote 'gainst every change,
Water impure it tempers, and inures
Men in all hardships to all temperatures.

SEA SICKNESS.

Who has not felt how feebly words essay
The qualms one feels on shipboard to portray?
Dread them no more, defy old Neptune's power,
The Bitters cure the nausea in an hour.

AN UNADULTERATED TONIC.

Of all the liquors borne across the sea
Not one—mark that—from acrid poison's free,
These Bitters stand 'mid stimulants alone,
Powerless to irritate, though prompt to tone.

A MILD APERIENT.

Remember, too, aperient root and herb,
Are blent with those that relaxation curb
In this rare mixture; give this fact due weight,
That while the Bitters tone, they regulate.

A GENTLE CORRECTIVE.

If on the stomach food to acid turns,
And pungent gas the inner membrane burns,
This grand corrective soon removes the ban,
And from the heartburn frees the inner man.

A SAFE AND GENTLE ANODYNE.

Why not with all the opiates dispense,
That shake the nerves and paralyze the sense,
When these rare BITTERS soothe both mind and frame,
Inclining both to yield to slumbers claim?

THE WORLD'S OPINION.

Touching the BITTERS, this grand fact is clear,
Their fame fills all the Western Hemisphere.
Known in all lands, washed by its oceans twain,
HEALTH, HOPE and VIGOR, follow in their train!

AVOID COUNTERFEITS.

HOSTETTER'S BITTERS share the common fate
Of all things good. Impostors imitate,
Of these beware. Discreetly use your eyes,
From honest houses purchase your supplies.

CAUTION!

The Government Endorsement.

In order to guard against the impositions, the public are requested to take especial note of the beautifully engraved proprietary stamp, through which the Government of the United States officially authenticates every bottle of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. This shield, thrown by the Government over the proprietors and the public for their joint protection, is placed conspicuously across the cork and over the neck of each bottle, and cannot fail to strike the eye of the most casual observer. Nothing that purports to be HOSTETTER'S BITTERS can be genuine unless the stamp is there.

It is also proper to state that the BITTERS are sold exclusively in glass, and never under any circumstance by the gallon or the barrel. Impostors and imitators are abroad, and the only safeguard the public have against them is to see that the Bitters they buy bear the engraved label and note of hand of Messrs. HOSTETTER & SMITH, and the stamp above mentioned.

The Widow s Tear.

A pair of scales before him a rich man sat and weighed
A piece of gold—a widow s all—and unto her he said:
"Your coin is not the proper weight so take it back again,
Or sell it me for half its worth; it lacks a single grain."
With tearful eyes, the widow said "O! weight it, sir, once more;
I pray you be not so exact nor drive me from your door."
"Why, see, yourself—it s under weight your tears are no avail"
The second time he tries it it first bends down the scale
But little guessed that ri h [illegible] gold so dear
That the extra weight which bore it down had been the widow s tear

After Murfreesboro

A STORY THAT HAS THE ADVANTAGE OF BEING TRUE

"I must pass the lines, Colonel!"

"I am sorry my dear madam to deny your request, but our orders cannot be departed from," was the answer of the gray-haired officer who sat before the camp-table and addressed a young girl who stood just inside the tent

"And can it be possible that men who profess to have human sympathy, can issue such orders?"

"Certainly, young lady Why not. The soldier has every attendance, and the presence of an amateur nurse could not fail to irritate and trouble him, therefore retarding his recovery."

"Colonel, this is no argument, but sophistry I have asked permission to pass that I may seek one whom your own surgeons report as mortally wounded Do you intend that he shall die without a friend by his side who can carry his last message to his far-off home, and to the old mother who will prize it beyond all other words that will be spoken to her in this life?"

The old man leaned his head upon his hand to conceal the tears that were trickling down his cheeks, but in a moment he roused himself

"The case is very hard," said he slowly, "but the good soldier wants only his comrades about him when his life is going out Some one among them will bear his dying message. You must not urge me young lady, I am a soldier and cannot depart from my orders I have no discretion

The girl turned away with a pale face and clenched hands, and walked silently out from the camp Many a cap was touched respectfully to her as she passed, for her errand was known to the soldiers, and however much they may have acknowledged the necessity of the harsh order that sent her away from the wounded man whom she sought, there was many a one among them that would have lacked the firmness of the old Colonel, when he denied the passionately worded plea of the blue eyed girl that had just gone away

The smoke of the terrible struggle at Murfreesboro had not yet cleared away, and though a week had passed since the day of the battle, order had not yet been brought from the terrible chaos The dead were buried, but the living were yet scarcely the recipients of the care necessary to keep those who were struggling between life and death on the right side The hospitals were crowded and the surgeon's knife, that testing steel to the bravery of the soldier, was busy in every ward

As invariably occurs immediately after a battle crowds of civilians, bent on every imaginable errand, flock to the camp Relatives seeking the dead and the living, news m gers and paper correspondents, anxious to pick up any incident to feed the hungry appetite of the public; peddlers and camp followers, thieves and gamblers, all in one heterogeneous mass, sought entrance within the Federal lines It was the influx that brought the order under which Elenor Price had been denied the privilege of seeking in the hospitals Lieut Frank Gordon, her playmate in childhood, her unflinching champion in school days and her affianced husband in manhood

In the long roughly constructed shed, improvised for a hospital with dying men on every side, with horror and disorder so that it could not be shut away from sight, lay the figure of a man, young and with well cut features, but gaunt and haggard Above the husk mattress on which he was stretched, hung the coat that had just been removed from his body, and upon it the well worn and weather beaten straps that showed its owner of the rank of First Lieutenant He had been divested of no clothing except the coat, and the gray army-shirt was open upon the breast, revealing the fact that his wounds, whatever their nature, were there No blanket covered his limbs, and the tightly closed, colorless lips and dimmed eyes spoke little hope for the life of Lieutenant Frank Gordon Five days he had lain this way, trembling upon the very verge of eternity, and pronounced by the attending surgeon past recovery What little could be done in the fearful crowding of thousands of lacerated men upon the hands of the attendants, and the deficiency of hospital aid, had been done, but the care to soothe the path of death was not there Right and left, and every direction he saw strong men turn aside their heads and die in very despair, with lesser wounds than his own, and then, with a sickening terror, he sank back upon his rough and careless couch, with prayer that his spirit might be called while his eyes remained closed to the misery around him

* * * * * * *

"With letters from Nashville to the General in command? Give them to my orderly and he will give you back the General's answer"

"You must excuse me, Colonel, I am under orders not to let these letters go out of my hands unless into those of Gen Rosecrans. If you say I cannot go up to head quarters, then I must return and report the fact."

The old Colonel seemed to consider a moment, and eyed the young officer who stood before him well over before he answered

"It is against orders, Lieutenant, to pass any one, but I can't see that these orders extend to an officer in the service bearing dispatches. I think you may go up What did you say the name was?"

"Smith Gordon, 12th Michigan, at your service"

"Gordon! Gordon! I ve heard that name before, I think Orderly, haven't we a Gordon with us?"

"Lieut Frank Gordon, on staff, sir, Shot in breast, sir Died this morning in Hospital No 2, sir," answered the orderly, with the sententiousness of a veteran

"Ah h h, yes" responded the Colonel, slowly, "I remember Hallo, Lieutenant, what's the matter? You look pale You're not frightened at the idea of a man dying in the hospital, are you? Here, orderly, a drop of whisky for the Lieutenant Maybe you ve never been under fire, youngster, if it's so, you're excusable, it s a dirty business. Take a swallow of whisky, it ll do you good. It's none of your infernal commissary stuff Won't take any, hey! Well I don't know but you are right Whisky is a bad thing in the long run Shall I send my orderly up with you? No. Very good if you think you can find the way You look rather young for this kind of business Good morning."

And the young man took his way alone in the direction of Headquarters and he came to a turning of the street that hid him from the eyes that were looking curiously out from the Colonel's tent, then he struck off in an entirely new direction, stopping one or two soldiers whom he met by the way, to ask questions of the route

Within an hour afterward he presented himself before the attending surgeon of hospital No 2

"Doctor, is Lieut. Frank Gordon buried yet?"

"Buried!" questioned the doctor

"He died, I believe, this morning If his body still remains here, doctor I should like to see it

"Buried," questioned the doctor again, "I don't think he s dead yet Lieutenant We don't bury anybody here until they are dead, sir, though we don't give them much chance afterward"

The doctor did not watch the great gasp given by the young Lieutenant who stood before him or possibly he, too like the Colonel, would have thought that the air of a hospital did not entirely agree with the boyish looking officer

"We have to get rid of them very soon, Lieutenant after the breath is out, to make room for new comers but we give them the best care we can while the life is in them Frank Gordon isn't dead yet, but I am sorry to say, poor fellow, that there is no hope for him There was a rumor this morning that he had slipped away from us, but I am glad to say that half an hour ago he was still alive

In a few moments they stood by the pallet of the dying man

"Gordon, here's a friend inquiring for you," said the doctor "I will leave you with him, Lieutenant"

It was well he turned his back to depart as he spoke, or he might have seen an inexplicable scene The wounded man raised his eyes languidly, and instantly started to a sitting posture, then in a minute more they were in each other s arms the wounded man unable to say more than a single exclamation—the other speaking hastily in reply to the Doctor's protest

"We are brothers. Pardon me, Doctor"

"Yes, but my dear fellow, this will never do, the excitement might kill him at once"

"O, no, I shall stay here and nurse him There, Frank, lie down and be quiet You must mind me if I am to be your nurse"

The wounded man lay down once more, but over his pale face a flush had spread that looked something like returning health In his eyes burned a secret joy, that made him forget the hospital and its surroundings, and centered upon the face of the young officer who stood holding his hand

"Now, doctor, you must let me be his nurse. I will not trouble you a bit, and will take your patient entirely off your hands He must get well for my sake"

"With all my heart," responded the Doctor, "Gordon, I'm glad you've got somebody to look after you. It's tight work to give anybody their just due I hope your nurse will do you good If you want anything of me, and it's possible, I ll do it"

And so the doctor walked away

"O, Elenor, why did you come to this place? It seems like a dream But you must go away, you cannot stay in this terrible spot"

"Yes, Frank, when I take you with me, but not before And now remember, darling, the first lesson as nurse My name is not Elenor, but Lieut Smith Gordon, of the 12th Michigan, and I am your brother You will call me Smith, but remember that my position here is safe unless you betray it Now one kiss only, to seal the bargain, and remember that men don't kiss each other"

Toward evening, when the doctor, made his rounds, he was astonished to be able to report there was a manifest improvement in Lieut Frank Gordon, and congratulated his brother on the good effect of his nursing The servant of the last had arrived, and according to the direction, had been admitted with the young officer's luggage, from which had appeared a pair of blankets, a clean shirt and many little necessaries and luxuries that the doctor declared to contain life in their very looks

The days sped away, and each was marked by the improvement of the man that had been given up to death Unceasingly by his side sat the never wearying young officer, sometimes in deep, whispering conversation, sometimes reading such books and papers as could be had to while away the time Much was the favor accorded to the firm, quiet manner, of Lieut Smith Gordon, that could not be got by the command of those higher in rank and louder in tone

We are come to the end At last the day arrived when the wounded officer could leave his couch, and go out once more into the air, and then it was upon the arm of the young Lieutenant that he leaned for support Pale they were both—one from the weary confinement of the hospital pallet, the other from watching beside it, but upon the face of both shone a happiness that could be generated only by love We claim the privilege of listening in these walks

"The life you have saved, Elenor, shall henceforth be devoted to you only"

Had there been lookers on as well as listeners, they would at that identical moment have witnessed the extraordinary spectacle of two persons in the uniform of Union service, clasped in each other's arms, the taller pressing kiss after kiss upon the lips and forehead of the other, and within a week after, if they had scanned the columns of the Cincinnati papers, they would have seen this paragraph
